Franklin Township Highlights

It was noted that the auditors held their reorganization meeting on January 3, 1990 and that Marlene Stiffler was elected Chairman and Katherine Gochenour was elected Secretary. The Items needing approval by the auditors were approved.

The board considered the Long Length Land Development Plan. The supervisors approved the plan subject to a bond of $500 to be posted for the filling in of the septic tank and the execution of an improvement agreement and necessary bonding for the paving of the driveway for an area of 100 feet in length and 24 feet in width.

The board considered the request for a modification of section 312.1 of the township subdivision and land development ordinance from Eric and Mindel Engle as it pertains to the Dennis and Beverly Seymore subdivision. The board granted the modification.

The board considered the subdivision plan of Dennis and Beverly Seymore on Hickory Road extended. It was noted that this is an add on to lands of Eric and Mindel Engle and that a road occupancy permit will be needed if and when the Engle's wish to either cut or tunnel under the road to run sewage lines to the land in question. The board approved the plan subject to the posting of a $200 bond for the placing of necessary monuments.

The plan entitled "Revised final plan of minor subdivision of Kenneth Lin, Inc." was considered. This plan is adding a small "sliver" of land to an existing lot in order to make it large enough to comply with township requirements for duplex building. The board approved the plan.

Mr. Tina Marshall was at the meeting to discuss her proposed subdivision for 38 single and 8 duplex lots on old Cabin Hollow Road. She will be proposing installing a pumping station to accommodate the subdivision and there was discussion as to whether the township will require her to place the station in order to take care of the whole drainage area or whether just her proposed subdivision will need to be addressed. It was decided that she should submit to the board a proposal with both costs only to accommodate the subdivision and/or the whole drainage area. Ms. Marshall also needed some action by the board insofar as availability of sewage capacity is concerned. The board voted the following: Based upon submission to the township of a plan entitled "Cabin Hollow Estates", the township will submit a letter to the Dillsburg Authority inquiring as to the availability of capacity for 54 EDU's for 18,900 gpd sewage capacity to serve the proposed subdivision.

The board discussed a letter received from DER regarding their views on issuance of a sewage permit to Mr and Mrs Lewis C. Gerber. The letter seemed to disagree on the validity of the hold harmless agreement entered into between the township and the Gerbers. Solicitor Emico advised the board to hold a hearing and that he would advise DER of the hearing, along with the past history, etc. of the permit and note that the system has been installed, based on the permit issued. It was decided to hold the meeting on January 29, 1990 at 7 p.m.

Mr. Gary LeMasters was at the meeting in regard to a letter that was sent to him by the township on his alleged violation of township ordinances on junked cars. The board granted Mr. LeMasters a period of 60 days from this meeting to remedy his situation, to bring his property into compliance and to keep the township informed of his actions in this direction.

The board voted to approve the Dogwood Hollow Phase II subdivision plan subject to a storm water management plan being entered into.

The board approved the land development plan of Dr. Peter Drake.

The board disapproved the subdivision plan of John William Hamm for the reasons as outlined in the Grove Associates review letter.

The board disapproved the land development plan of Kenneth Lin Inc due to the plan not having been revised as per the comments of the Planning commission review and the review letter of Grove Associates

The property of Leslie Lutz on Range End Road was inspected by Engineer "Bud" Grove and was found to not be in compliance with the court order requirements. A letter was prepared by Mr Grove and copies were sent to Mr Lutz, Mr Lutz's attorney and the board of supervisors. Solicitor Emico will send Mr Lutz a letter with the list of expenditures, etc., including the $1000.00 per day required by the court order, requesting payment.

Building Permit Office Steve Eng reported that Mr Fred Madiera has obtained three building permits and it was expected that he would be at the meeting tonight to discuss the status of his mobile home court, Walmar Manor. The board directed BPO Eng to send a certified letter to Mr Madiera requesting that he provide the township with the existing approved plan for the court and to make applications for building permits for the existing buildings and/or submit a land development plan within 30 days

It was reported that Michael Dobrinoff removed the word "Auto" from the sign on the building but that the sign itself and the cars remain on the property. The board directed BPO Eng to send Mr Dobrinoff a letter giving him 10 days to remove the sign and to submit a land development plan by February 20, 1990.

Eli Dobrinoff inquired as to the procedure necessary for him to obtain a junk yard license for the area presently licensed to Michael Dobrinoff. The board informed Mr Dobrinoff that he must apply for a new junk yard license, with all present ordinance requirements being satisfied and must given proof to the board that the lease with Michael has been voided.

The board granted William Weder a period of 60 days, from the date of this meeting, to bring his property into compliance with township ordinance as they pertain to junk cars.

Tax Credit

Well its Tax time again and we at Kindercademy wish to remind parents that they are entitled to Tax Credits which reimburse taxpayers for a percentage of the money they pay to those who care for their children, aging parents or other dependents, while at work.

Starting with 1989 (Due April 1990) families claiming the Tax Credit will be required to complete a new form, the W-10 (Dependent Care Provider's Identification and Certification form), which requires the name, address and social security number of the sitter or business Tax ID (TIN) of the licensed center. The IRS will then cross-check the information to make that the costs the parents say they paid are also reported as income by the sitter or day-care provider.

Make certain you request the sitter complete the W-10 form before you agree to purchase their services. The IRS has instituted penalties for those who refuse to provide the W-10 information.

Joyce C. Reiner Earns Certification

Joyce C. Reiner, Special Assistant to the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Optometric Association (POA), is one of 96 individuals nationally who has earned the Certified Association Executive (CAE) designation from the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE).

ASAE is the individual membership society of executives, trade associations and professional societies across the country

Prior to certification applicants are rated on their experience and accomplishments in association management and must successfully complete a comprehensive, one day examination, which tests general knowledge of the association management profession. Candidates must have either five years experience as an association executive or three years as a chief staff executive.

The close of 1989 brought the total number of association executives who have earned the CAE designation to over 1,600. Among association professionals, "CAE" is an indication of demonstrated skill in leadership, activity in community affairs, and expertise in association management.

Ms Reiner's responsibilities at POA include coordinating activities with the Membership Development Committee, working the Membership Services Committee on program development, and supervising the association's finances and computer information system. Her most recent project was the successful renovation of the POA state headquarters.

POA is the voluntary, professional organization for over 1000 Doctors of Optometry in Pennsylvania. An affiliate of the American Optometric Association, POA provides it's members with post-graduate education, membership benefits, public information materials and conducts activities in the interest of the visual welfare of the public

Ms Reiner is a graduate of Northern York County High School and lives in Dillsburg with her husband and two daughters

Walters Recertified As District Justice

District Justice Paul A. Walters was again certified for service as a member of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System after successful completion recently of continuing legal education coursework. Conducted by the Minor Judiciary Education Board and the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, the "school" for district justices is held in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

The weeklong instructional program is designed to insure that district justices remain current on a variety of legal topics and management techniques required to fairly adjudicate cases and effectively run a District Justice office. Also included in the program is a section on judicial ethics. Among the other subjects in this year's curriculum:

Civil Law Update.

Case-flow Management in the District Justice Courts

Automation and the District Justice Office

Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code Update

Criminal Law Update

The course is required by statute of each of the more than 500 Pennsylvania district justices, with approximately 45 district justices attending one of 13 such classes at some time during each year

Established by Constitution, the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts provides support to the Supreme Court in exercising its supervisory duties over each of the other state courts. Superior, Commonwealth, Common Pleas, Philadelphia Municipal Court, District Justices, Philadelphia Traffic Court and Pittsburgh Magistrates Court. The Minor Judiciary Education Board is established by legislative act to administer the continuing education program

SPECIAL Your Friendly Income Tax Bureau presents "Herb's Helpful Hints"

These little helpmates are designed to make your income tax an easier job to do. Gives you more time

1 Get fourteen sharp pencils and a good rubber eraser

Bend the kids to the movies (This is not tax exempt)

3 Better put a pot of tea on to brew. You're gonna be up late into the night

4 Unfold the form 1040, and carefully read the directions. Stop scratching your head. I didn't understand them either

5 Now subtract your expenses from your income using line 10, and don't forget the depreciation clause and the obsolescence. Line 12 is a killer. This means that you have to go back and start all over again, because you forgot to declare your annuities and income from estates. Here's where that eraser comes in

6 Hunt for that eraser I told you to get.

7 It is now 11 o'clock and the kids have just come from the movies, making further progress impossible

8 You now have the choice of doing one of two things:

(a) Locate the nearest tax expert, and awaken him

(b) Join the Foreign legion.

DILLSBURG, Dillsburg enthusiasts have just come up with a terrific idea. A group of men got together and formed the Greater Dillsburg Athletic League. Their purpose: To sponsor athletic teams and events, taking in boys and girls of all ages. Currently they are working on a basketball league consisting of youngsters from about ten to fourteen. I managed to get to their last meeting and was overwhelmed with the response from the kids. They have over fifty-six kids just itching to get their hands on a basketball. Walter Burke, Charley Bingham, Bill Shaw and Barney Cromer seem to be the moving force behind this wonderful idea. The boys will be given the opportunity to take advantage of some expert coaching by local stars, including a few college ball players. Any'bd you kinda like have a yen to learn the game, git yourself a pair of sneakers, and com'on up to the Community Hall, and dig up!!!

DEMOCRATS INCLUDED Bus left Dillsburg with a load of men, with its destination Washington. They all wanted to be on hand for the inauguration of the new President (Rat, wasn't it??). What puzzles me is the fact that a few Democrats sneaked into the bus, namely Mary Smith (who took along her Stevenson pin), hubby Marshall Smith and some others. Paging Norm Weigard, Blaine and Ralph Lefever, and Chester Stauffer. How can you let Bob McClure, Clyde Strayer and all those other Dems ride in the same bus??? We buried the hatchet, high!

Bless you all. Herb Harris. January 21, 1953

Recycling

To help promote the statewide recycling effort, Pennsylvania Glass container manufacturers have organized a speaker's bureau for appearances between civic and community groups

Public awareness is going to be the key to successful recycling, said Douglas L. Gibboney, Executive Director of the non-profit Pennsylvania Glass Recycling Corporation.

The glass container industry wants to do its part to help people understand how recycling works.

Gibboney noted that glass is 100% recyclable. Used bottles and jars can be melted down to be made into new containers without loss in quality. This process can be repeated again and again and again in true closed-loop fashion.

Speakers provided by the glass container plants will discuss how glass is made, quality requirements for recycling and what the industry is doing to promote increased recycling.

Gibboney said that the speakers will be scheduled free of charge on an "as available" basis. The program can be 15 to 45 minutes long, depending upon the group's requirements.

More information is available by writing Pennsylvania Glass Recycling Corporation, 500 North Second Street, Harrisburg, Pa 17101

PTO Donates Two Books

The Northern Elementary PTO has presented two children books to the Dillsburg Public Library. The books, All Those Mothers at the Manger and Farmer Mack Measures His Pig were signed by the illustrator Megan Lloyd. Ms Lloyd a resident of Carlisle, recently visited at Northern Elementary. She demonstrated how an illustrator produces the artwork for a book, answered questions, and read one of her books.

Families are encouraged to stop in at the library and borrow these books. The children who talked with Ms Lloyd will enjoy telling their friends and families all they learned. The books are beautiful and should delight many readers of all ages
